A welcome address was given by the faculty of Dept. of History. The main objectives of the programme was explained by Talat Uddin Ahmed, Asst. Prof., Dept. of History. The Topic of the Seminar was "Domestic Violence and Women". After taking over the Chair by chairperson the presentation of seminar paper was started. After completion of seminar paper presentation interaction session conducted among the students and faculty members.

At the end of the seminar chairperson thanks all the students and faculty members for their active cooperation. A speech also given by chairperson regarding the main objective of the seminar and its importance.

Keynotes:- Domestic violence often occurs when the abuser believes that they are entitled to it, or that it is acceptable, justified or unlikely to be reported. Domestic violence committed by someone in the victim's domestic circle. It's a worldwide problem. Women were mentally or physically tortured by family members, friends, relatives and occurred very often. It's violate the human rights. Women were considered weaker section of society and in that way they were treated. It's a great obstacle in the development of women progress and they suffer a lot.

Outcome:- The seminar was very fruitful. Students participation was very encouraging. Lots of problems and obstacles were discussed through the seminar about women in our society. It will be definitely help to understand the value of women and the impact of violence.
