A welcome address was given by the faculty of Dept. of History. The main objectives of the programme was explained by Jalal Uddin Ahmed, Asst. Prof., Dept. of History. The Topic of the Seminar was "Domestic Violence and Women". After taking over the chair by chairperson the presentation of seminar paper was started. After completion of seminar paper presentation interaction session conducted among the students and faculty members.

At the end of the seminar chairperson thanks all the students and faculty members for their active cooperation. A speech also given by chairperson regarding the main objective of the seminar and its importance.

Keynotes :-

Domestic violence often occurs when the abuser believes that they are entitled to it, or that it is acceptable, justified or unlikely to be reported. Domestic violence committed by someone in the victim's domestic circle. It's a worldwide problem. Women were mentally or physically tortured by family members, friends, relatives and occurred very often. It's violate the human rights. Women were considered weaker section of society and in that way they were treated. It's a great obstacle in the development of women progress and they suffer a lot.

Outcome :- The seminar was very fruitful. Students participation was very encouraging. Lots of problems and obstacles were discussed through the seminar about women in our society. It will be definitely help to understand the value of women and the impact of violence.

Brief note

Seminar

A college level on 'Womens Empowerment' was arranged by Seminar cell of IQAC. The Seminar was chaired by Prof. J. Sutana Associate Prof Department of Education. Participating as resource person Dr. M. Parbin Assistant Professor of Assamese Department explained the role of women in transforming the society. She said that a society can not grow without the help of women. Education and awareness play a pivotal role in this respect. Another resource person Prof. A. Devi from Sanskrit Department outlined the theme of women Empowerment. She urged the need of building the women's capacity through training and non formal education so that they become able to access and understand the root cause of both social and financial inequality in society. This would facilitate the women to achieve self-reliance and sustainability. Students should work hard from the very beginning of their course. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. N. Jena.

Keynote of Seminar Topics:
Role of Women in freedom Struggle in India:

Women contributed to the independence movement in India by organizing anti-colonial protests, boycotting British goods and participating in acts of civil disobedience. The sacrifice made by the women of India will occupy the foremost place. They fought with true spirit and undaunted courage and face various tortures, exploitations and hardships to earn us freedom when most of the men freedom fighters were in prison the women came forward and took charge of the struggle.

The Top 5 female freedom fighters were Rani Lakshibai, Sarojini Naidu, Kamala Nehru, Kasturba Gandhi and Aruna Asaf Ali.

The struggle for India's independence from British colonial rule was marked not only by the bravery of men but also by the indomitable spirit of women who stood shoulder to shoulder with their male counterparts. Throughout the tumultuous journey towards freedom, numerous women displayed unwavering determination, resilience and patriotism. These women took on roles that ranged from mobilising masses to leading protests, from organising protests to contributing to underground movements.

The significance of women's contribution were not only instrumental in shaping the trajectory of the independence movement but also in rendering gender roles and social norms from diverse regions, backgrounds and walks of life, these women united under the common banner of freedom, leaving an indelible mark on India's history.
